What is Hoonuit?

What Is Hoonuit by Atomic Learning?

Online Professional Learning Experience.

Hoonuit provides anytime, anywhere access to a vast library of online learning resources relating to instructional practices, career readiness, student engagement, technology use, and more. Hoonuit works to both enhance and personalize online learning using our Learnt. DoIt. ShareIt. ProveIt. approach:

LearnIt.
Professional learning resources on highly-relevant topics, allowing users to quickly and easily discover new concepts.

DoIt.
Provides an activity that allows the users to practice the concepts they learned by applying it in their classroom and daily life.

ShareIt.
Gives the opportunity to share the Do It activity with the Atomic Learning community. This provides users with the chance to share ideas, collaborate and receive feedback.

ProveIt.
Demonstrates what was learned and documents progress through reflection or assessment.

Wiggins Library
10:00-4:00
Featured Sessions:
- "Tech Tips and Tricks"
- "Networking & Collaboration"

Login Information
Campbell University has a password reset self-help tool for students, faculty, and staff at mycpassword.campbell.edu. After enrolling, you will be able to change, reset, and unlock your network password from a web browser on any device without assistance from Computing Services staff. This may save you some time if you encounter an issue during non-business hours or if we are very busy at the helpdesk.

The Password manager allows you to:
1. Enroll – First step to access features 2-4 below
2. Reset – Reset your password if you forget it
3. Unlock - Unlock your account if you have keyed the wrong password too many times
4. Change - Change your password for security reasons

Note: You cannot use the password manager to reset student email passwords. Fac/Staff email passwords can be reset using the tool.

Personal Learning Space (Learning and Collaboration)

- Log into Blackboard
- Click on the “Courses” tab
- Click on “Personal Learning Space”

The “Personal Learning Space” in Campus Pack allows students, faculty, and staff to have “a private place to create and share content. Students and staff can start their own blogs, wikis, journals and podcasts and nominate whether, with whom and when they will share what they write.”
